I understand that these documents can affect my legal rights and that the appraisal district, appraisal review board and the taxing units are not required to send me copies if I direct them to deliver the documents to my agent.

- all communications from the chief appraiser (Such as an Appraisal Notice)
- all communications from the appraisal review board (Such as a Notice of Protest Hearing)
- all communications from all taxing units participating in the appraisal district (Such as the Tax Statement)

STEP 5: Date the Agent's Authority Ends. Pursuant to Tax Code Section 1.111(c), this designation remains in effect until the date indicated or until a written revocation is filed with the appraisal district by the property owner or the owner's designated agent. A designation may be made to expire according to its own terms but is still subject to prior revocation by the property owner or designated agent. Pursuant to Tax Code Section 1.111(d), a property owner may not designate more than one agent to represent the property owner in connection with an item of property. The designation of an agent in connection with an item of property revokes any previous designation of an agent in connection with that item of property. By designating an agent on this form, previous designations of other agents in connection with the items of property shown on the form are revoked.

Date Agent's Authority Ends (If this is left blank, the agent will be coded for future years)

The Appraisal District must follow the information and directive specified on the agent form.
